Today's athlete wants to win fairly according to the rules. Primitive man had no rules, no sense of fair play.

In the intervening centuries man learned more of God. He began to apply basic religious principles of honesty and integrity to all the activities of life. Finally, he decided that even his games ought to be played by such standards.

Sometimes we say that sports build character. We really mean that fair play—the religious principle we have tried to incorporate in our games—turns mere competitive effort into a character-molding experience.

But life is more than a game . . . and Christian character is more than sportsmanship.

The Church teaches all of us the principles of moral and spiritual living. It brings us into a reverent relationship with God himself. Its truths not only inspire fair play . . . but victorious living.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Workers on the scene yesterday afternoon were Elmer Adams, John Garretts, Fred Londen and Art Frantz. Workers are donating their time. (Staff Photo By MacLeod)

Haigh, Hiller Speak At Graduation

STROUDSBURG High School valedictorian Robert Haigh last night urged the world to "go west."

Haigh said "the West IS civilization." He urged Americans to remember that "personal democracy should be a vital, living force changing daily to meet the demands of the people."

He also said that "We of the West should not be so fond of our freedoms that we take them for granted. We must do our best to use our liberties for the greatest possible good."

Picture

Salutatorian John J. Hiller painted a picture of a present-day world in which "tensions and fears" are built up. To battle them successfully, he said, modern man must keep a clear head and invent his own internal balance wheel.

Class president James Welsh presented the class oration and gift—a TV set—to the school. Main speaker for commencement was Rev. Peter K. Emmons, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Scranton. Invocation and benediction were given by Rev. John A. Bollier.

Church Synod Unanimously Adopts Credo

BUCK HILL FALLS — The Reformed Church in America unanimously adopted a far-reaching "Credo on Race Relations" at the 151st meeting of its General Synod here yesterday.

The credo, speaking on behalf of 220,000 communicant members in 845 congregations, approved the racially inclusive and cultural integrated church as the highest demonstration of the transforming fellowship of the Christian faith.

It declared that "racially registered housing covenants are inconsistent with Christian integrity."

With regard to intermarriage between races, the church declared its belief that being "in Christ" transcends all ethnic and cultural barriers. It said the church "misconceives its function when it actively hinders, forestalls or denies the marriage of any two people who, loving Christ, love each other."

Expression

The credo further expressed the church's belief that the "recent Supreme Court decisions on the ordered, gradual segregation of the public schools of our land represents an effective, legal expression of Christian attitude and conviction at the present time."

"We believe we should supplement and implement the intent and content of that decision," the statement said.

In other action, the synod reiterated its former position that voluntary total abstinence should be the desired behavior of members of the denomination.

It also denounced gambling as "a menace to business integrity, a breeder of crime, a destroyer of good government, and a demoralizing influence in society."

The delegates adopted a record benevolence budget of $2,880,000 for the regular ongoing work of denominational agencies. They also appointed a committee to study the possibility of setting up an authorized radio outlet for the Reformed Church.

"Temple Time," a radio broadcast of the synods of Michigan, Chicago and Iowa, now presents weekly Gospel broadcasts over 45 stations in the United States, and 24 in foreign countries.

In other action, the synod voted to send to its churches for study, documents dealing with "opening the offices in the church to women."

Work Scheduled To Begin On Stokes Mill Bridge Monday

WORK ON THE Stokes Mill permanent bridge will begin on Monday.

Arnold Eschenbach, contractor on the job, told The Daily Record last night he hopes the bridge will be completed by early Fall.

Ready to go into operation Monday morning, also, will be the temporary crossing approved by State engineers. Local officials asked for and got permission for the temporary crossover.

Eschenbach said last night that the State provided metal pipe for use in making the by-pass at the construction site. Work on it was done by Eschenbach's workers.

The temporary crossing is located about 100 feet downstream from the site of the regular bridge. It is 600 feet long.

Reconstruction of the Stokes Mill bridge involves several phases.

First of these will be recapping some of the existing piers and abutments. This work will bring the road elevation up about two feet.

The contract also calls for construction of one new 80-foot span at the bridge. This will make it a three-span structure.

Remainder of the job will be construction of a new concrete deck on the top of the bridge and the completion of approaches from either side of the bridge.
